It is expressly understood and agreed by and between the parties, that LCBPU shall have the right to make and put into effect all rules and regulations necessary or proper, in its business of supplying water. No cross connections between LCBPU and any other private or public systems will be allowed. Any customer who shall construct, maintain, allow to exist or attempt to install such cross connection shall have all services discontinued by the removal of the service meter and no reconnection shall be made until a thorough inspection has been made and the entire premises be found to be in compliance with existing state laws concerning cross connection as set forth by the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation, Division of Water Supply.

I agree to notify the office of LCBPU of any changes to the above conditions.
